

QCT Committee Charter

As endorsed by the QCT Board in February 2016

This Charter outlines the procedures and guidelines for QCT committees established in accordance with the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005 ('the Act').

Authority

The Professional Practice and Conduct Committee is established under section 113 of the Act.

The Board established the following committees, in accordance with sections 211 and 259 of the Act, at its February 2012 meeting:

- Audit and Risk Committee
- Eligibility Declarations Committee
- Internal Review Committee
- Professional Standards Committee
- Registration Committee
- Suitability to Teach Committee

At its June 2016 meeting, the Board established a Strategic Futures Committee

Purpose of Committees

The purpose of the Professional Practice and Conduct Committee is to consider relevant disciplinary matters as set out in the Act (section 115).

The other committees listed above have been established to assist the Board in effectively and efficiently performing the QCT's functions. The functions of a committee established by the Board are to:

- advise and make recommendations to the Board about matters relevant to the Board's functions that have been referred by the Board to the committee; and
- exercise powers delegated to it by the Board.

Delegation of powers to Committees

Under section 264 of the Act, the Board may delegate its powers to a member of the Board, a committee of the Board, the Director or an appropriately qualified member of the Office's staff.

The specific delegations (if any) to each committee are set out in the Appendix.

Terms of Reference

The terms of reference of each of the committees are as determined by the Board and in accordance with sections 115, 211 and 259 of the Act.

The terms of reference of each committee are set out in the Appendix.

Except for those expressly delegated to it by the Board, a committee has no executive powers.

Each committee is directly responsible and accountable to the Board. In carrying out its responsibilities, each committee must at all times recognise that primary responsibility for the management of the QCT rests with the Director.

Membership

The membership of the Professional Practice and Conduct Committee is set out in the Act (section 114). The membership of each of the other committees is as determined by the Board and in accordance with sections 211 and 259 of the Act.

The membership for each committee is set out in the Appendix.

In order to keep members' workloads within reasonable limits, a Board member should normally not serve concurrently on more than one QCT committee.

Attendees who are not constituted members of a committee may be invited by the committee chair to attend meetings as appropriate.

Any QCT staff members who are members of committees in an ex officio capacity may participate in the committees' discussions but may not vote on decisions/resolutions before the committees.

Chairperson

All committees are to be chaired by a Board member and (except for the PP&C, STT and Eligibility Declarations Committees, where a deputy is unnecessary) are to have a deputy chair who is also a Board member. In each case, the Committee chairperson and deputy chairperson are appointed by the Board from among the Board members on the Committee.

Secretariat

Staff of the QCT Office will provide secretarial support to the committees. The secretary of each committee will be appointed by the Director, in consultation with the relevant senior managers.

Term of appointment

While members are generally appointed for the term of the current Board (i.e. normally for three years), appointments to committees are subject to annual review.

Periodic rotation of Board members' appointments to committees is to be encouraged so that members gain a broader understanding of the range of QCT business. Board members should not serve more than two terms on any one committee.

Induction

All new committee members will be provided with an induction pack containing key information and will be inducted in a timely manner.

Number and Frequency of Meetings

Committees must meet as required to ensure compliance with any applicable timelines set down in the Act, and to ensure its duties are fulfilled and that business is handled expeditiously.

The expected meeting frequency for each committee is set out in the Appendix.

Notice of Meeting

A notice of meeting including an agenda stating the business to be conducted and the associated meeting papers, shall be distributed by the committee secretary to all members of the committee not less than five days prior to the scheduled meeting date.

Tabled papers may be provided at the meeting.

Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of a committee is one-half of the total number of members of the committee, or if one-half is not a whole number, the next highest whole number applies.

Chair to Preside

The Chair of the committee shall preside at every meeting of the committee at which he or she is present.

Should the Chair of the committee be absent from a meeting, the Deputy Chair (where one exists) shall preside at the meeting, or if there is no Deputy Chair or the Deputy Chair is also absent, a member of the committee elected from among the members who are present shall preside at the meeting.

Attendance at Meetings

Committee members are appointed as experts, not as representatives of an organisation, and therefore cannot appoint proxies.

An exception is made in the case of the Professional Standards Committee, where members may attend by proxy at up to two meetings per calendar year.

A committee member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings without leave of absence from the Board chair will cease to be a member of the committee.

Conflict of Interest

Every committee meeting will include and minute an agenda item allowing members to declare any potential perceived or actual conflicts of interest. Where members have a real or perceived conflict of interest, they will be excused from committee deliberations on the issue where the conflict arises.

Leave of Absence

The Chair of the Board may approve leave of absence for a member of a committee.

The Chair of the Board may seek to appoint someone else to the relevant committee for the period the committee member will be absent.

Vacation of Position

The position of a committee member becomes vacant if the member, or the organisation by which the member was nominated, advises the Chair of the Board in writing that they will not be continuing on the committee, or if the member is absent for three or more consecutive meetings without seeking leave.

Reporting

Where appropriate, committees should annually schedule their work, informed by overall QCT priorities.

Under section 259(4) of the Act, a committee must keep a record of the decisions it makes when exercising a power delegated to it by the Board.

The committee secretary must keep minutes of each committee meeting and send these to committee members (once approved by the committee chair) within fifteen working days of the committee meeting. Reports of committee meetings must be presented to the Board at the earliest opportunity for noting, endorsing or action.

The Chair of each committee will report to the Board on all matters that should be brought to the attention of the Board and any recommendations requiring Board approval and/or action.

The Internal Review Committee, through the Committee Chair, must provide the Board with sufficient information to ensure that the Board is able to make an informed decision in relation to the committee's recommendations. In addition, each committee will provide an annual written report to the Board on all matters relevant to the committee's role and responsibilities, including its charter, operation and membership.

The PSC is to provide for each Board meeting an update on the accreditation of ITE programs offered in Queensland.

Performance evaluation

In addition to conducting regular evaluations of its meetings, each committee will undertake an annual review of its performance and will provide this to the Board. The Board will also evaluate the performance of the committees as appropriate to ensure that an overall picture has been properly considered.

Member role and responsibilities

Committee members are expected to act in the best interests of the QCT and not to represent the views of the organisation nominating them.

All committee members are required to adhere to the Code of Conduct for the Queensland Public Service, adopted by the Board as the code of conduct for members of the Board and members of committees and working parties established by the QCT.

The code of conduct provides a framework to support the ethics principles of the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994 and provides a standard of conduct to apply to members in the performance of their duties as members of the Board, a committee or a working party.

Review of committee Terms of Reference

Each committee will annually review the continuing relevance of its Terms of Reference. Any proposed changes will be submitted to the Board for consideration and, if thought fit, endorsement.

Amendments to the Committee Charter

This Charter may be amended by the Board of the Queensland College of Teachers.
